

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a an abuse of the right they've been granted to use the airwaves that belong to the public as a whole.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. By law, they must provide equal access to both sides on an issue in which there is public debate, or provide no access at all. Instead, they are attempting to serve their corporate interest rather than the public one. This action is illegal and only this agency has the power to act in the public's behalf to stop it.

Thank you for your help.
